

Preference for Receiving the Annual Membership Directory

Most non-members answered this question, so we are showing the results for them as well as for members. Nearly six in ten members prefer receiving the directory online as opposed to getting a hard copy mailed to them.

Non-members are significantly more likely than members to prefer on-line access to the directory. This was one of the few significant differences found between members and non-members.